

Produced almost regularly by John Foyster, foyster@senet.com.au.

On the cover of this issue: the reasons science fiction fandom in Australia wasn't doing much in the middle 1960s.

Left to right: John Bangsund, Leigh Edmonds, Lee Harding, John Foyster, Tony Thomas, Merv Binns, Paul Stevens.

In this issue: the 1981 Melbourne convention. Guests of Honour were Joe and Gay Haldeman.

UNICON 6: 1981

From the middle 1970s, the university science fiction groups had conducted annual conventions. The sixth, in Melbourne, was photographed by Allan Bray.

This continues the series of electronic fanzines produced from Allan's collection of sf convention photographs.

Left to right: Joe Haldeman, Gay Haldeman, Keith Curtis, and Justin Ackroyd the Younger (seated)

Merv Binns, Gay Haldeman, Derrick Ashby

Gay Haldeman,
Derrick Ashby,
Leigh Edmonds

John Bangsund, Sally
Yeoland, Ernie Binns

Roy Ferguson &
Julia Curtis

George Turner

Angus Caffrey

Paul Stevens

Left: Gerald Smith. Right: Angus Caffrey. Centre: Daryl Mannell (Tiny Daryl, and not a Punkette in sight)

TWO ENFORCERS FROM SYDNEY FANDOM:
Jack Herman and Lewis Morley

Sean McMullen (left); Irwin Hirsh, John Bangsund, Jeff Harris