

eFNAC 16

The Supplement

November 2001

Photos taken October 19 to November 26 by Yvonne Rousseau and Jennifer Bryce

Nope, nothing here that lends itself to a caption

Are you sure that these dots are aligned with what's left of my brain?

So there is a world outside hospital after all!

Of course it isn't the conventional way to use a walking frame, but it works for me...

Well, Oanh, it certainly tastes like Hainanese Chicken Rice

While Habermas's views on a European constitution seem sound, he doesn't mention the Basques

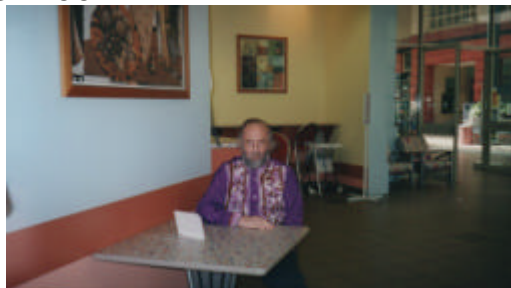

And I learned to walk in these corridors: 20 laps is one kilometre..

Stop the philosophizing, just pass me the goddamn hemlock!

Hey, infectious yes, but it's surely not that bad...

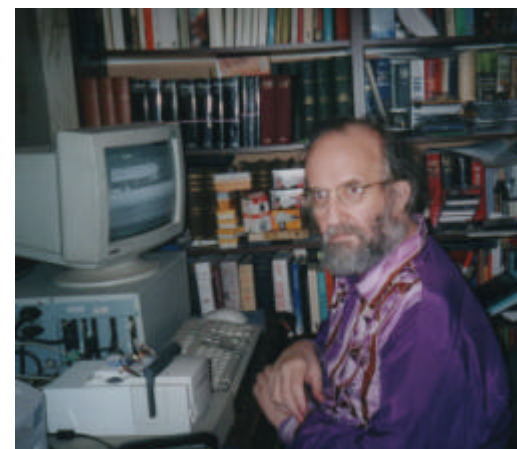

And then when I try to eat with normal people they avoid me like the plague.

Except for Oanh: this time it's Butter Chicken.

I don't mind escorting you two back to your car, but how far did you say it was?

Escaped at last – but 3000 emails to sort through: hospital suddenly looks good!

Lunch on the grass, 48 hours out of hospital (Miranda Foyster, Yvonne Rousseau)

That's all, folks!